

Dallas Suburbs

You'll have no lack of attractive living options. One area to consider is the northwest Dallas suburbs. Many of the sought after suburbs are located in this area. These include: Coppell, Flower Mound, Grapevine, Plano. This area has become very popular because of excellent schools, plentiful restaurants and shopping and a less dense population.

Most of the suburbs all Dallas offer these characteristics:

- High ownership of homes - Most people who live in the Northwest suburbs own their homes. This contributes to a higher standard of living for this area.
- Some of the best school districts in Texas are located in the Dallas Fort Worth area. You'll experience peace of mind know that your kids are receiving the best education possible.
- Top notch colleges and universities are located throughout Dallas. If you are thinking about going back to school and starting your college education, you'll have plenty of choices within a reasonable driving distance.
- You'll find not problems locating apartments in Dallas. Scattered throughout Dallas are many upscale apartments that offering a wide variety of amenities.
- There are many desirable neighborhoods located in each suburb of Dallas. Every type of ambience is imaginable. You'll find contemporary, colonial and gothic styles of neighborhoods.
- Restaurants, shopping malls, entertainment and parks are in abundance.

Many love to live in the suburbs because it's less crowded. Families are able to spread out and enjoy the rural settings that many suburbs are able to offer. Getting to work is usually no problem because of the extensive freeway system. Dallas' publica transportation agency (DART) has rapidly expanded making if easier to commute to work.

Below is a list of Dallas suburbs and a short description of each:

Addison - Addison has excellent restaurants and great entertainment centers. This is a city that vibrates with energy and fun.

Arlington - Arlington is the center of the Dallas / Fort Worth metroplex. It is the home of the Texas Rangers, Six Flags Over Texas and will the the home to the Dallas Cowboys.

Carrollton - Gently rolling hills, a combination of older and newer homes and a young population are characteristic of this community.

Coppell - Coppell is conveniently located close to the DFW International Airport and the Dallas Downtown business district. Coppell is home to a 116-acre park system which includes two lakes and scenic hiking and biking trails.

Eules - Eules is know for it dedication to vision and growth. It is only of the fastest growing cities of the DFW metroplex.

Garland - Garland is Texas' ninth largest city. It is located the North Eastern part of the Dallas metroplex. It is know for having excellent golf courses. Garland is located close to several recreational lakes.

Grapevine - Grapevine is named after the Mustand Grapes that grow in the area. Grapevine is home to the largest mall in North Texas. The Grapevine Lake affords the outdoor enthusiast with many outdoor activity options.

Irving - Irving is a significant business center for Dallas. It is home to Exxon-Mobile, Kimberly-Clark and Omni Hotels. Texas Stadium is located in Irving.

Lake Dallas - Lake Dallas is a small community located on the shores of Lewisville Lake. Lake Dallas has a small town charm with a revitalized downtown area.

Las Colinas - Las Colinas is a planned community and home to many Fortune 500 companies. Los Colinas is synonyms with luxury hotels, highrise office towers and private country clubs.

McKinney - Mckinney is an upscale community located north of Dallas.

Plano - In 2005, Plano was named the best place to live in the Western United States by CNN's Money magazine. Plano has excellent schools and is home to many top corporations.

Richardson - Known for its abundance of restaurants, malls and movie theaters, Richardson is an award-winning city with top-rated schools.

The Colony - The Colony is a unique city, master-planned back in the early seventies.

About the Author

Zack Fair publishes articles for Rent-Dallas-Apartments.com, a website dedicated to promoting Dallas Apartments, providing resources on Dallas neighborhoods, communities, and schools to people looking to live in Dallas.

Source: <http://www.article-idea.com>